To whom it may concern:

Film Independent is the non-profit arts organization that produces the Film Independent Spirit Awards and supports a community of artists who embody diversity, innovation and uniqueness of vision.

The Directing Lab is one of several programs of Film Independent that promote independent voices by helping filmmakers create and advance new work. All of our programs are dedicated to increasing cultural diversity in the film industry by cultivating the careers of traditionally underrepresented filmmakers.

The Directing Lab which runs from January through April selects talented and highly motivated filmmakers, Fellows.

During program, Fellows select short scenes from their screenplays to workshop and shoot. These exercises help the Fellows work on their craft and creates an opportunity to see the work through from pre- to post-production. The Directing Lab culminates in a group screening for Fellow Lab participants and Advisors.

These exercises have no commercial purpose and are used only for constructive critique and evaluation on the Fellows craft.

Tiger Girl is the project title and Christina Radburn is the producer and Andrew Huang will be directing the exercise.

This is an official letter stating that the film above is exclusively for Film Independent non-profit purposes and NOT independent of our organization.

Any assistance you can provide to our current Directing Lab Fellows will significantly impact their projects.

Film Independent gratefully accepts the support you are giving to these talented filmmakers.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call or contact me via email.
